How to setup a uQualio® Free Trial

First step: Create a 'Free Trial'

During the 14 days free trial you can: Publish on your own uQualio® site & invite up to 10 people. Follow the activities, analyze, communicate, motivate, and document the results.

To start a free trial, go to: www.uqualio.com/freetrial.html

Press the button

The following window appears where you must enter a name for your account – it would make sense to call it your company name.

NB! You can change the account name later.

Then you must accept the commercial terms for use of uQualio® system but once this is ticked off, you only need to press Create.

By e-mail you receive your activation code, once added, press 'Activate'.

You land directly on the 'Create Content' page.
