

Get full impact of your Training Videos

uQualio®

uQualio® is the learning platform that enables you to offer your own video-based courses with the latest digital standards of learning

Users can access all your courses online by phone, tablet or PC - and get 24/7 access to knowledge and learning material.

You can boost skills in strategic areas of your business, for selected target groups that you define - for example,

- Your employees
For onboarding, performance, knowledge sharing, compliance documentation
- Partners
For product / sales training of dealers or distributors
- Your customer's employees
For product training of users or application specialists

Why uQualio®?

- 1. Easy to use - easily recognizable features enables users to operate intuitively without instruction
- 2. Effective learning - based on videos, uQualio® facilitates the learning method, proven more effective than traditional learning
- 3. Motivation - "bite size" (short and with low-complexity) videos, exercises, tests, dynamic communication and community gamification is motivational and optimizes learning
- 4. Social Marketing - If the social elements are used on the platform,- when users share their learning achievements as badges on social media – it increases visibility and credibility of your business and product, and you get full value through user-driven marketing.
- 5. Simple yet flexible - you can easily compose, and update target groups and courses on your uQualio® platform. With video material ready in advance, you can launch a learning campaign in less than 30 minutes, whether you want to efficiently onboard new employees, share knowledge or document compliance
